

FROM LOOT BOXES TO LOTTERY TICKETS: IN THE CLASSROOM

A workshop to engage BC youth aged 12-18 in discussions about gaming & gambling

New for the 2026-2027 school year, McCreary Centre Society is offering free 90-minute workshops about gaming & gambling with youth ages 12-18 in schools & community groups across BC.

In this interactive 90-minute workshop, youth will:

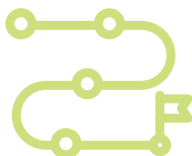

Learn the results of McCreary's recent report on BC youth's experiences with gaming & gambling.

Explore beliefs & assumptions about gaming & gambling.

Discuss signs that gaming & gambling might be problematic.

Come up with strategies to maintain a healthy relationship with gaming & gambling.

This workshop is available in person & online.

Training for educators to facilitate this workshop is also available.

To bring this workshop to your school or community group, please contact youth@mcs.bc.ca.
